2017 AUGUSTA FUTURITY SHOW FINDS 598 ENTRANTS COMING FROM 20 STATES PLUS CANADA AND ITALY

THE 38TH EDITION OF THE AUGUSTA FUTURITY RECEIVED A MAJOR ADRENALINE BOOST WITH THE ADDITION OF ONE OF THE TOP EVENTS ON THE NATIONAL CUTTING HORSE ASSOCIATION CIRCUIT. WITH THE MERCURIA WORLD SERIES OF CUTTING MAKING AUGUSTA ITS FIRST STOP ON ITS YEAR-LONG SCHEDULE, THE AUGUSTA SHOW SAW AN UPTICK IN ENTRIES. THE LARGEST CUTTING HORSE SHOW EAST OF THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER PROVED IT WASN'T GOING ANYWHERE.

FUTURITY

Jarrett Callahan of McConnells, S.C., left, gets congratulated after scoring 222 riding Calico Spots in the finals of the Augusta Futurity Non-Pro competition. It was strong enough to win Callahan his second major Augusta event since being champion of the $20,000 Amateur competition in 1996.

While the Augusta Futurity featured additional riders and longer hours, some things remained the same.

Veteran cowboy Craig Thompson claimed his third Augusta Futurity Open championship when he and Reyzurbetsonthiscat marked 223 to win the finals by 4.5 points. "Augusta is very special," said Thompson, who's been competing here since the late 1990s. "I've been coming here a long time.

They try to really put on a great show. It's really a special win."

This edition of the Augusta Futurity will be remembered as one the best in recent years. The show featured a purse of $491,758 - an almost 30 percent increase over the 2016 event. Also, the Stallion Stakes Incentive Program paid out another $43,700 - a 15 percent increase over 2016.

During the eight-day event, 598 entrants - an uptick of 238 from the previous year - came from 22 states, as well as Canada and Italy.

Georgia had the most entries with 111, while Texas was just behind with 106. South Carolina had the third-most with 75.

The Augusta Futurity kicked off with one of the city's premier annual events. The USC Aiken Extra Inning Bull Riding Championship, a companion event to the official show, featured thousands of patrons inside the arena.

On Sunday, the second annual Augusta

Wes Nichols stirs up the crowd as auctioneer of the 2017 Horse Sale that saw 24 of the 32 consigned horses going for a total of $140,600.

Futurity Truck Parade began in North Augusta and made its way to downtown Augusta.

On the final day of the futurity, the Wrangler Family Fun Fest, a free event featuring live music, a petting zoo and more in front of the arena, was held.

Another popular non-official portion of the show was the Area 18 Youth Scholarship finals.

Katherine Queen, a 12-year-old competitor from Allendale, S.C., won the title and the $3,000 scholarship. That wasn't her biggest win of the show.

Later in the evening, the preteen competitor recorded one of the top runs in Augusta Futurity history. Aboard Metallic Manziel, Queen rung up a score of 227 to best the competition in the Classic Non-Pro finals. Also, the pair marked the top score of the week.

"This is crazy," Katherine said. "This is everything I could ever imagine."

Queen tied for the highest winning score in the 33-year history of this event. Her father, Skip, also marked 227 aboard Sister CD when he won this event exactly 10 years earlier.

Also, Katherine became the third member of her family to win a Classic Non-Pro title in Augusta. Skip won in 2002 and 2007, while Elizabeth won in 2009.

"It's just surreal to watch her," Elizabeth said. "That horse is just incredible."

Thompson had an incredible horse as well. Then again, he recorded another fantastic week after winning Augusta Futurity's crown jewel, the Futurity Open, in 2012 and 2013.

Thompson said the boost in entries, which led to an adjustment in the show schedule and longer days, led to a loss of sleep - something he said he didn't mind.

"We stayed up late a lot of nights," Thompson said. "I thought it was a great show this year. It had a great vibe to it, it had a great tone to it. Everybody that I was associated with out at the practice facility and around here had a good, positive feeling."

Thompson wasn't the lone repeat champion at the show.

The husband-wife team of Phil and Mary Ann Rapp returned to Augusta after staying home in Weatherford, Texas, the previous three years.

They each found success in their trip back to Augusta. Phil, the all-time Augusta champion, won for the 13th time when he claimed the Classic Open title. Mary Ann claimed her third Augusta title, winning the Mercuria Non-Pro championship.

"We always enjoy coming to Augusta," Phil said. "It's just a fun place to come. We love the town, we love the people. They're so friendly and accommodating. So it's special to do well when you get here."

Jarrett Callahan posted his second Augusta Futurity win, claiming the Futurity Non-Pro finals. His previous victory in Augusta came 21 years beforehand when he captured the $20,000 Amateur.

This year's show featured several first-time winners as well. Oklahoma's Gaylon Wells, who returned to Augusta for the first time in two decades, won the Mercuria Open finals.

Jane Mancuso took home the Unlimited Amateur for 5/6-Year-Olds finals. Blake Graham won the Unlimited Amateur for 4-Year-Olds championship. Brad Barker recorded a win in the $50,000 Amateur Any Age. Rhein Standish claimed the $35,000 Non-Pro Amateur.

Several competitors claimed additional money thanks to the ACCHA Subscribed Stallion Auction, which was held by the Atlantic Coast Cutting Horse Association and paid out for the seventh year.

Twenty participants claimed a share of the $43,700 in prize money. Reysyourbetsonthiscat and Craig Thompson earned $4,739 for the top run in the Futurity Open. Seven other participants earned incentive checks in the Futurity Open division.

Jarrett Callahan was the top winner in the Futurity Non-Pro. He took home an incentive check for $3,980. Jason Britt claimed the top incentive prize in the 4-Year-Old Unlimited Amateur, with a check for $3,159.

There were four winners in the $200,000 Limited competition, a "class within a class" in the Futurity and Classic divisions. Riders put up an additional fee to see whose horse placed the highest.

LCS Silver Cat, owned by Larry Cooper of Orleans, Ind., and shown by Nick Pilcher, won the Futurity Open Limited.

On Somethingtobelievein, owned by Brett and Jody McGlothlin of Perrin, Texas and shown by Jody McGlothlin, won the Futurity Non-Pro Limited Luck Xury, owned by Gary and Michelle Reichart of Frankton, Ind, and shown by Bradley Davis, won the Classic Open Limited.

Metallic Manziel, owned by Skip and Elizabeth Queen, and shown by Katherine Queen, won the Classic Non-Pro Limited.

FUTURITY OPEN GO-ROUND

Two-time Futurity Open champion leads go-round with Barnwell Ramsey's horse

CRAIG THOMPSON just happened to be riding horses for Linda Holsey when she decided to sell off some horses.

When Reyzubetonthiscat became available, Barnwell Ramsey quickly purchased the horse. It worked out great for Thompson, who found another top-notch mount.

"He's just been a great horse to ride," Thompson said. "He's just been a blessing. Real low maintenance."

Thompson, a two-time Augusta Futurity Open champion, won the Futurity Open go-round with Reyzubetonthiscat.

The pair marked 220, finishing a half-point ahead of Brett McGlothlin and SomethingtoBelievein.

Skip Queen was one of three cutters to advance three horses to the finals, advancing Pitchforks Bet 013 (218.5), Halcats Lil Sis (218) and Calico Spots (216).

Austin Shepard, who won the three previous Augusta Futurity Open championships, qualified Tap This (217.5), Sir Long Legs (217) and Lookin At Reys (216).

Trainer Jessie Pritchard also advanced three horses: Pepto N Jack (217.5), Hal Of A Year (216) and Stylish Aussie (215.5).

The top 20 horses with scores of 215.5 or better advanced to the finals.

The 47-year-old Queen of Allendale, S.C., was bidding for his first Futurity Open title. The four-time winner in Augusta last won in Augusta when he took home the 2015 Classic Open title.

Queen purchased Pitchforks Bet 013 for the Varnadore family of Evans - Joey Varnadore is officially listed as the owner - in December 2016 at the NCHA World Championship Futurity in Fort Worth, Texas.

Pitchforks Bet 013 won the Limited Open at that show.

"The horse just had a lot of eye appeal," Queen said of the gelding. "He was very consistent."

Queen ran early in the day on Calico Spots. He returned later to make his mark on Pitchforks Bet 013 before posting another qualifying run on Halcats Lil Sis nine runs later.

Queen, who raised Halcats Lil Sis, advanced to the NCHA World Championship semifinals on her before finishing fifth with her last week at the Abilene Spectacular.

"I always thought she was going to be one of my better 4-year-olds," Queen said. "She's just shown to be real consistent. I've been real tickled with her."

This marks the first year the entire Queen family is competing in the Augusta Futurity.

While Skip and his wife, Elizabeth (non-pro division), have been competing for years in Augusta, their 12-year-old daughter, Katherine, is riding in the Non-Pro division.

Also, their 15-year-old son, Elliott, is competing in the 2017 show in the Area 18 Youth Scholarship finals.

"Elliott just started competing last year after this futurity," Skip said. "He enjoys it. I don't think he's quite as crazy about it as the rest of us, but he has fun with it. And it's something we can all do together."

Texan Craig Thompson becomes third time Futurity Open Champion

BARNWELL RAMSEY left Augusta again with another success story to tell his friends about. This time, though, he wasn't in the saddle.

Veteran cutter Craig Thompson worked his Augusta magic again in the crown jewel of the Augusta Futurity riding Reyzurbetsonthiscat and, for the third time, walked out of the red Georgia clay as winner of the premier event.

Thompson and Reyzurbetsonthiscat rebounded from a rough run earlier in the evening to mark 223 and win the Futurity Open finals by 4.5 points at James Brown Arena.

The cutter from Buffalo, Texas, earned a check for $10,000, while Nick Pilcher and LCS Silver Cat finished second at 218.5 for $9,000. Curry Diehl and He Deals placed third (218, $8,000).

The 46-year-old Thompson, married to Sasha with two sons (Chase, 16, and Catch, 12), added his third Augusta Futurity victory to his consecutive Futurity Open wins in 2012 and 2013.

"Augusta is very special," said Thompson who has been competing in the local arena since the late 1990s. He credited Show Chairman William S. "Billy" Morris III for keeping the Augusta Futurity as one of the top shows on the circuit.

"I've been coming here a long time. They try to really put on a great show. It's really a special win."

Reyzurbetsonthiscat is a gelding by Bet Hesa Cat out of Ariel Rey. Ramsey bought the horse as a 2-year-old and Thompson has been training him ever since.

"He's a very nice horse," Thompson said. "He's just been low maintenance. He's been a real pleasure to be around. He just loves his job, loves what he's doing."

In December, Ramsey and Reyzurbetsonthiscat marked 222 to win the NCHA Amateur championship in Fort Worth, Texas. They were able to enter the competition after Thompson ran into some trouble in the second go of the NCHA World Championship and failed to make the semifinals with the gelding.

Thompson and Reyzurbetsonthiscat rebounded to win the Augusta Futurity Open go-round earlier in the week of the 2017 show.

On the final night of the competition, the horse and rider competed in the Mercuria Open finals and marked a zero. But a few hours later, the duo bounced back in the Futurity Open finals.

"It was such a tough cutting - the cattle were so unpredictable," he said of the Mercuria round. "It's just a blessing to get your horse shown, especially with this caliber of competition. You're just thankful for it. They don't come around often. I was just really ecstatic about getting him shown."

Ramsey said Thompson and his horse have a high level of chemistry together, something that helped in the championship run.

"If you'll notice, a lot of these horses look real frantic out there," Ramsey said. "Craig rides him so smooth that he doesn't look like he's even working him."

She brought one horse to Augusta and became the Go-Round winner

IT'S NOT UNUSUAL for Augusta Futurity contestants to bring several horses to compete with during the show.

Jody McGlothlin of Weatherford, Texas, however, brought just one horse for her first showing in Augusta. Yet it was good enough to make the 2017 Futurity Non-Pro Go-Round winner.

McGlothlin doesn't have as much time to compete these days as she would like. She and her husband, Brett, have two young daughters (Addy, 3 and Kenley, 2).

She also owns and runs the fully-accredited private school Grace Christian Academy attended by about 115 children, many of them coming from children of cutting horse families.

In spite of her time restraints, McGlothlin started showing horses a little more often before The Augusta Futurity.

"I've been riding, but not showing," she said. "It's fun getting to start to show again."

McGlothlin and Somethingtobelievein marked 218.5 to win the Futurity Non-Pro Go-Round by a half-point.

Lindy Ashlock placed second and third on a pair of horses. She and Catin Safari marked 218, and Ashlock also rung up a score of 217 aboard In Reyverse.

The top 15 horses with scores of 214.5 or better advanced to the finals.

McGlothlin of Weatherford, Texas, qualified for the finals in her first time showing in Augusta. She's been coming here for years with her husband, trainer Brett McGlothlin.

But, she said, this was the first time she's had a decent horse in which to compete.

Somethingtobelievein is a mare by Hydrive Cat out of Playin T Etta. The McGlothlins purchased the horse in late 2015.

"We loved how smart she is about a cow," said Jody, who the NCHA Futurity Limited Non-Pro with the horse. "She's extremely athletic, very talented."

Outside the pen, McGlothlin said Somethingtobelievein can be a handful.

"She's quite the little pistol," she said. "She's a little spitfire, but that's what makes her. She's a mess."

McGlothlin, who has been showing cutting horses for 13 years, said her horse was spot on in the go-round.

"She's extremely talented," she said. "I just have to do my job. I was a little nervous going down, because it's been a month since I've worked her on a cow. But she's just so easy to ride, so easy to work with."

South Carolinian Jarrett Callahan wins Futurity Non-Pro title

BY LIVING IN SOUTH CAROLINA Jarrett Callahan enjoys somewhat of an advantage over many competitors in The Augusta Futurity.

Most other cutters drive many hours to get to Augusta, but it takes Callahan of McConnells, S.C., less than three.

Because of his close proximity to the largest cutting horse show east of the Mississippi River, Callahan gets to enjoy a bit of “home-pen” advantage.

While several friends and family supported him on the final night of the Futurity, Callahan collected the biggest victory in his cutting career.

He and Calico Spots rung up a score of 222 to win the Futurity Non-Pro championship by 1.5 points.

His first Augusta Futurity Non-Pro title earned Callahan a check for $8,000.

Aboard Somethingtobelievein, Jody McGlothlin finished second at 220.5 for $6,700, while Lindy Ashlock placed third with Catin Safari at 219 for $5,500 and fourth on In Reyverse at 217.5 for $4,800.

It was Callahan’s only win at The Augusta Futurity in more than a decade. He previously won the $20,000 Amateur event in 1996.

“It’s a hometown event,” said Callahan, who lives about 140 miles outside of Augusta. “A lot of people from back in my area come. It means a lot.”

The 42-year-old Callahan, who owns an excavating business, is married to Shannon and they have four children. Twin boys, Beau and Hunter Nunn play football for Appalachian State.

Also, Gracen, 15, and Gavin, 13, are fellow cutters who competed in the Augusta Futurity.

Jarrett has been coming to the Augusta for more than 20 years. With his business and family obligations, he said he doesn’t have a ton of time to show cutting horses.

“I try to go to the major events,” Callahan said. “The last couple of years, I’ve been really busy. And in football season, we’re slowed up because we’re going to the boys’ football games.”

Callahan bought Calico Spots, a stallion by Bet Hesa Cat out of Playin The Spots, as a yearling at the derby sale. Trainer Skip Queen has been working with the horse, riding Calico Spots to the Abilene Spectacular finals a few weeks before the Augusta Futurity.

“He’s very cow smart,” Callahan said. “He just loves to cut.”

Texas cutter returns to Augusta and wins Go-Round by four points

PHIL RAPP MADE SURE he kept his back in good shape in his return to Augusta

The cutter from Weatherford, Texas, in October 2011 underwent surgery to repair a herniated disc in his lower back. Since then, he's worked on preventing a relapse from happening.

"It's holding up great," he said. "I do my stretches every day. I do my little workout I've got."

Rapp returned back to Augusta after a four-year absence, making his return in the Classic Open go-round.

In typical Phil Rapp fashion, he and Dont Stopp Believin rung up a mark of 224 to win the Classic Open go-round by four points.

Skip Queen and Metallic Manziel finished second at 220, while Craig Thompson and Stylin One Time tied for third at 219 with Bubba Matlock and Tommies Playgirl.

The top 28 horses with scores of 216 or better advanced to the finals.

"It's just like riding a bicycle," Rapp said about his return to the Garden City. "Some things have changed, but a lot of things have stayed the same. The people are always great. It's good to be back. The weather has been great. It's kind of a chamber of commerce week here."

It was Rapp's first trip back to Augusta since 2013.

Just a year before that, he won the Mercuria Open finals with his 7-year-old mare Dont Look Twice. They also set the arena record in 2012 with a score of 231.

That topped the previous high-water mark of 230.5 posted by Tag Rice and Chiquita Pistol nine years earlier.

Rapp said he came back to Augusta because of a combination of things: the Mercuria World Series of Cutting event (which took place later in the week), along with the NCHA Open events.

Also, he's showing some horses for Bobby and Lori Gale of South Carolina.

"We've got some horses we're trying to promote," Rapp said. "I can't say it was one thing in particular. It was several things that brought us back. But it was good. It was old home week to come back here the past several days."

Dont Stopp Believin, by Dual Rey out of Dont Look Twice, is a 6-year-old stallion.

"He's just a neat horse. We're just trying to mature him. He was a lot of fun today. Everything went well," Rapp said after the Go-Round.

The 47-year-old Rapp is the all-time champion in Augusta with 12 titles, four more than Austin Shepard.

Rapp owns just one Classic Open title in Augusta, a championship he captured aboard Smart Little Jerry in 1998.

He is married to Non-Pro cutter, Mary Ann, who also competed during the week at the Augusta Futurity. They have two children - Ryan, 15, and Emma, 10 - who are heavily involved in cutting as well.

Ryan is a top competitor in the Senior Youth Division, while his sister is trying to break into the top 15.

Phil Rapp, holder of most Augusta titles, adds yet another one with 223 score

PHIL AND MARY ANN RAPP have a thing for naming horses after songs they like.

Years ago they named a horse after country music artist Craig Morgan's song Redneck Yacht Club.

Inspiration struck again when Phil Rapp stopped at a Sam's Club parking lot in Abilene, Texas, and heard one of the hit songs by the band Journey being played through the speakers.

That's when Rapp texted his wife, Mary Ann, with the modified suggestion: Don't Stopp Believin.

"I said there's my name right there," Rapp recalled. "He's just the kind of horse that you just don't stop believing in. He's just a quality horse."

In the Classic Open finals, Rapp and Don't Stopp Believin never quit as they marked 223 to win the event by two points with Rapp collecting $10,001 for the victory.

The Augusta Futurity all-time champion claimed his 13th title in the Garden City. He won his first event in Augusta with the Futurity Non-Pro championship in 1991.

He added his first Classic Open championship in 1998. Rapp won four titles in a row from 2009 to 2012, finishing with the Mercuria Open.

After coming up short in 2013, he returned into the winner's circle this year after a long layoff.

"I'm pretty slow for not coming back for several years," the 47-year-old Rapp said. "It's just wonderful here."

Bubba Matlock and Tommies Playgirls tied for second place at 221 with Skip Queen and Metallic Manziel. They each took home $7,500.

Austin Shepard and Christy Hughes tied with Cullen Chartier and Shady Lil CD for fourth at $5,500.

Don't Stopp Believin, a 6-year-old Dual Rey stallion, is a fifth-generation horse with the Rapp family. His father, Jerry, bought the mare, Tapeppyoka Peppy, for Phil in 1984.

"I was 14 when he bought (Tapeppyoka Peppy)," Rapp said about his father, who wanted him to have a good horse. "Here I am 47 still getting good horses out of that line. So dad and mom are pretty smart."

In the Classic Open finals, Rapp rode Don't Stopp Believin eighth in the last set of 14 horses.

Rapp said his horse was spot on. The pair scrambled to cut a third cow with 20 seconds left, a move that helped put them over the top.

"There were two good runs sitting there in first place," Rapp said. "I knew we had a really good caliber of run going and I just wanted to finish it off strong."

'He's just the kind of horse that you just don't stop believing in. He's just a quality horse.'

Gelding bought one month before show proves to great in the Augusta ring

GO-ROUND
CLASSIC NON-PRO

ALLISON BARKER made her first trip back to Augusta for the first time in four years.

She and her husband, Brad, finally decided to make the long trek from Texarkana, Texas, thanks to a good crop of horses.

"Our trainer, Steve Oehlhof, really likes this place," Allison said. "And it's nice being some place different."

Barker and ARC One More Time made the most of her return trip. The pair marked 219 to win Classic Non-Pro go-round with 219, finishing one point ahead of Mary Ann Rapp and Miss Kitty Reycine.

Lindy Ashlock and Prowlin High placed third at 217.5. The top 15 horses with scores of 214.5 or better advanced to the finals.

Barker enjoyed her run with her recent purchase. She said ARC One More Time is the most athletic horse she's cut with.

"He's the smoothest, most athletic animal I've ever ridden," she said. "He's unreal. As long as I do my job and don't do anything to make him upset, he's fine."

The Barkers purchased the 6-year-old gelding one month before the Augusta Futurity.

They spent Christmas with Oehlhof and noticed an older woman trying out ARC One More Time, by One Time Pepto out of Katie Belle Babe, a few days later. The Barkers looked on, and Brad told Allison she was also going to try the horse.

"A little old lady got on him and he just took care of her," Allison said. "I tried him and we bought him on the spot."

ARC One More Time, a horse the Barkers call "Frankie," led Allison to a weekend class win the first time she showed him. The next day, the duo didn't find any luck. The 6-year-old gelding made his third appearance with Allison aboard in Augusta.

"He's real loving, but he's subdued," she said. "I wouldn't make him mad either. He's a unique animal. You never really know what's going on in Frank's head."

Barker walked away happy with her run in the go-round. Yet, she still found the Georgia clay to be a bit of a pain.

"The only complaint is the red dirt doesn't come out of anything," she said. "But it's fine. The people in the town are very nice, so friendly."

'He's the smoothest, most athletic animal I've ever ridden. He's unreal. As long as I do my job and don't do anything to make him upset, he's fine.'

Queens make winning family affair with Katherine also claiming title

IN MAY 2016, Katherine Queen and her mother, Elizabeth, embarked upon a girls trip to Texas in search for a horse. Katherine's grandparents (Becky and Miles Elliott) gave her one stipulation: buy a nice horse.

The search was not an easy one. Some appeared to be promising, but they didn't pass the veterinary check. Then, the Queens found Metallic Manziel, a 6-year-old gelding by Metallic Cat out of Smart Look N Pepto. They bought the horse, originally trained by Tag Rice, from Sam and Leigh Good after Katherine had the opportunity to work the horse against some cows.

"The first time I put my hand down on him I knew this was the one," Katherine said. "There was something special about him."

She found out just how special the horse turned out to be in the Classic Non-Pro finals. As soon as the two finished off their run to loud applause, the score flashed on the electric board. Tears began streaming down her face.

The 12-year-old Queen held it together long enough to post a run for the ages aboard Metallic Manziel. The pair marked 227 to win the Classic Non-Pro finals by seven points.

"I was just bawling," she said after seeing her score. "I was just thanking all my help. It couldn't be any more special."

Queen and her gelding marked the highest score of any of the official events at the Augusta Futurity. The pair defeated a pair of veteran Non-Pro cutters in Mary Ann Rapp (Miss Kitty Reycine) and her mother, Elizabeth Queen (Princess And The Pea), who each marked 220.

The younger queen of Allendale, S.C., took home the first place check for $8,500 with her first Augusta Futurity victory. Rapp of Weatherford, Texas, and the elder Queen each won $7,300.

"This is crazy," Katherine said. "This is everything I could ever imagine."

Katherine Queen tied for the highest winning score in the 33-year history of this event. Her father, Skip, also marked 227 aboard Sister CD when he won this event exactly 10 years earlier.

Also, Katherine became the third member of her family to win a Classic Non-Pro title in Augusta. Skip won in 2002 and 2007, while Elizabeth won in 2009.

"It's just surreal to watch her," Elizabeth said. "That horse is just incredible."

Inside the pen, Katherine said Metallic Manziel is tougher to ride than her youth horse. Outside the pen, he's much different.

"He's fun. He's cool," she said. "He's like a big dog."

Elizabeth added: "When we found him, we fell in love with him. He's part of the family now."

Queen and Metallic Manziel built momentum throughout their run. When they finished cutting the second cow, she said she knew she had a big run going. With 35 seconds remaining, she caught her breath as she drove deep into the herd to cut one final cow.

"I just lost it during my final cow," she said. "I started crying and he handled. He was just there for me and did everything he could to hold that last cow."

'He's fun. He's cool. He's like a big dog. When we found him, we fell in love with him. He's part of the family now.'

Taking a break from cutting proves the right thing for Texas cutter

ROBERT TIEPERMAN LEADS A BUSY LIFE in Jewett, Texas, working as a chiropractor for humans and horses.

When he's not busy with his job, he's busy being a family man having four children with his wife.

So it only made sense that he took a break from showing cutting horses a few years ago.

"I took a couple of years off just to spend with my family," Tieperman said. "I just decided to get back into cutting. I tried the horse a couple of times and tried a few others. I kept coming back to him. I needed a horse that was a caliber that would be very competitive."

Tieperman returned to the sport after buying TS Catch N Reys, a gelding by Dual Smart Rey out of Hide A Kitty, in December 2016 at the NCHA World Championship Futurity.

Then, he showed for the first time in two years in Augusta.

The drive east was well worth it. Tieperman and TS Catch N Reys marked 219 to win the Unlimited Amateur for 4-Year-Old go-round.

Denise Seiz and Time For A Smoothie finished second at 218. Larry Cooper and LCS Silver Cat placed third at 217. The top 10 horses with scores of 213 or better advanced to the finals.

For Seiz, making the championship round is special for several reasons.

She's a competitor from Georgia, whose twin sister lives in Macon. Seiz's mother also lives in Tallahassee, Fla., about six hours south of Augusta.

"Any time I make a big finals, she and Mom try to come and cheer me on," Seiz said. "I'll be sure to call her (her sister) and see if she can get here."

Seiz bought Time For A Smoothie in December. The Augusta show was only the second time she ever had shown the mare.

She had watched a webcast of trainer Scott Amos competing with Time For A Smoothie at the NCHA World Championship Futurity. It was then Seiz knew she needed to buy the horse.

"Her integrity is like a 6-year-old or a 7-year-old, just a lot of integrity," she said. "I just saw her on the webcast and thought that was a cute little mare."

Seiz said Time For A Smoothie, by Smooth As A Cat, is sweet. In fact, they call the horse "Sweets."

"She's just loving, she just wants to please," Seiz said. "She doesn't have an ill bone in her body. She's just as sweet as she can be."

Seiz and her husband, Charlie, live in Cedartown, Ga., where they own a 500-acre cattle ranch and keep 8 to 10 horses. She is retired from the public accounting and banking industry, and he is retired from the printing business.

About 12 years ago, Charlie attended the Augusta Futurity while Denise was at a pleasure horse event.

"He said we needed to get into cutting," she said. "It looked like so much fun out there."

Home schooled student from Dublin, Ga.,
claims his second title in Augusta

---

SOMETIMES IT WORKS OUT WELL when riders and horses compete in multiple events the same day.

For Blake Graham and Zacks Smoothie, it did work out well at The Augusta Futurity.

The 16-year-old cutter and his horse ran in the Futurity Non-Pro go-round on the morning of the next-to-last day of the show.

Despite running fourth in the second set of the cattle, the pair walked out of the pen with a zero.

When it came time to compete in another event three hours later, Graham wasn't sure how Zacks Smoothie would fare.

"I didn't know what to expect," Graham said.

Graham and his mare found a magical turnaround in the 4-Year-Old Unlimited Amateur finals marking 220 to win the event by two points.

When asked how the victory felt, Graham simply replied, "I don't know. It feels good." He took home a check for $2,546.

Denise Seiz and Time For A Smoothie finished second at 218 for $2,036 while Larry Cooper and LCS Silver Cat placed third (213, $1,782).

Graham, a sophomore home schooled student from Dublin, Ga., claimed his second title in Augusta. Two years ago, he won the Area 18 Youth Scholarship finals, a companion event to the main show.

"He's done really well on this mare," Graham's trainer Chris Howell said. "He had bad luck this morning on the Non-Pro. I was really glad to see him get in there and take this one home."

Graham bought the horse in July from trainer Clint Allen. Graham said the horse's big stop was the main reason for the purchase. He said outside the pen, the horse is "aggravating."

Graham has been coming to the Augusta Futurity for years with his grandfather, Jim, who doesn't compete. Instead, Jim buys the horses for his grandson.

5/6-YEAR-OLD UNLIMITED AMATEUR GO-ROUND

14-Year-Old Georgia rider wins 5/6 Year-Old Unlimited Go-Round

AS A YOUNG CUTTER, Pittman Turner has learned from one of the best in trainer in Sam Shepard.

The veteran Alabama cowboy helped the young Turner develop his horse skills; something that paid off in The Augusta Futurity.

One of the main lessons Turner has learned: Let the horse do his work.

"He's just told me to be real patient with him and not hurry him through everything," Turner said. "I just need to sit back and let him do his job."

Turner and Toms Desire did their job in the Unlimited Amateur for 5/6 Year Olds Go-Round, marking the top score with 217.

Rhein Standish and Im Countin Starz finished second at 216 tying with Jane Mancuso and CR Missn Jethro Woody.

The top 20 horses with scores of 212 or better advanced to the final round.

"When you walk down to the herd, you don't know if you're going to make it," Turner said about his run. "But when you see that score pop up when you leave the go-round it's just a good feeling."

The 14-year-old Turner resides in Franklin, Ga., about three and a half hours outside of Augusta. He has attended The Augusta Futurity the previous four years.

In 2016, he participated in an aged-event competition for the first time in Augusta. He failed to make the finals, but he didn't let it bother him.

"That's just part of it," he said.

Turner returned with Toms Desire, his 5-year-old gelding by Thomas E Hughes out of Bet On Desire. He said he enjoys competing with the horse.

"He's a smooth-riding horse," Turner said. "He's probably the most comfortable horse I've ridden."

Turner was in his freshman year at Heard County High School during The Augusta Futurity. He attended school the first three days of the week before driving Wednesday night to Augusta ahead of his Thursday showing in the Unlimited Amateur event.

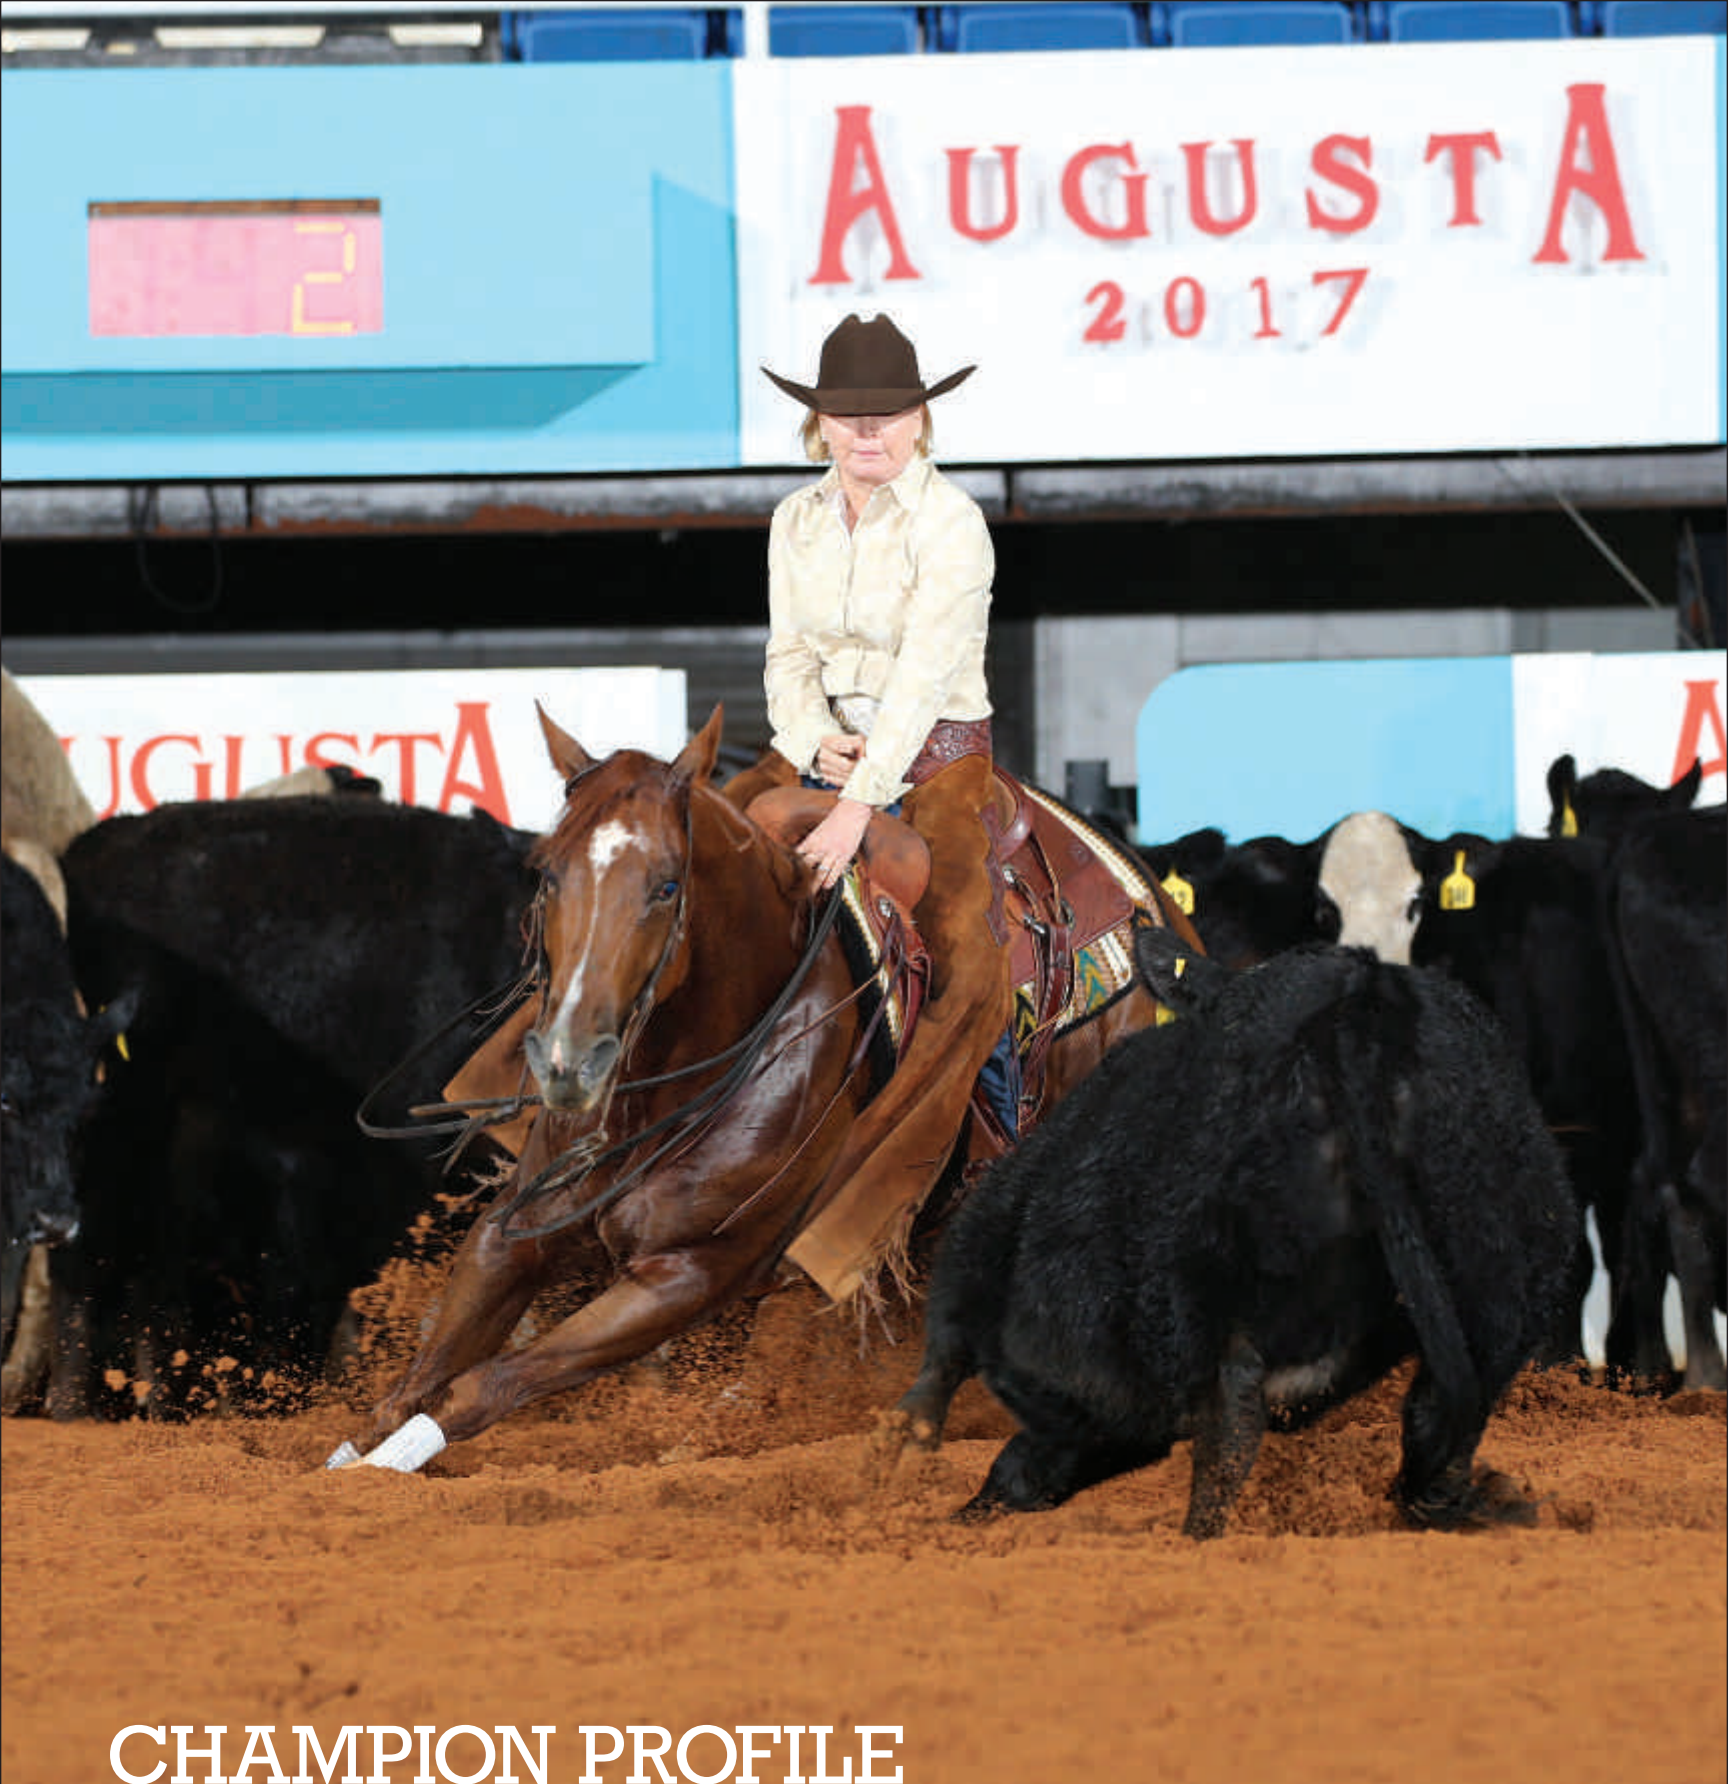

The following day, Turner competed in the Area 18 Youth Scholarship finals. He said his teachers understood him missing a few days.

"They work with me, and I make all my work up," he said. "And since it's a scholarship cutting, they didn't say anything."

First trip to Augusta proves memorable for rider who wanted something different

SOME PEOPLE grow up in the sport of cutting horses. Others find their way into the sport for one reason or another.

For Jane Mancuso, it was an epiphany. She realized after years of riding jumping horses it was time for a change.

"I was in the arena schooling and it just hit me that I was done with (jumping horses) and I was getting a divorce and I wanted to do something totally different," she said.

"So this is what I'm doing now. And I wanted to find a cowboy - and I did."

With a new horse and a new trainer, Jane Mancuso trekked this year to Augusta for the first time. She left town with a belt buckle, a check and plenty of good memories.

Aboard CR Missnjethro Woody, Mancuso marked 218.5 to win the Unlimited Amateur for 5-6-Year-Olds finals.

Mancuso of Plantersville, Texas, won $3,301 for her first Augusta Futurity title.

Madeline Nix and Annie Nu Light tied for second at 217 with Robbie Gale and Cat N Corn. Nix and Gale each took home $2,350. Jordan Vaughn and Wild Haired Fitz placed fourth at 216.5 for $1,700.

"This is absolutely amazing," Mancuso said. "I can't describe it. I'm just flabbergasted."

The 61-year-old Mancuso, a small animal veterinarian, bought CR Missnjethro Woody, a 6-year-old gelding by Woody Be Tuff out of Missn Cats Meow, about a year before the Augusta Futurity from Ronnie Rice. Mancuso said she had been looking for an aged-event horse. Trainer Barbara Schulte connected her with Rice.

"I'm very lucky to have this horse," Mancuso said. "He's very easy to ride. He's great for a 6-year-old. I couldn't ask for anything more."

As for her cutting career, it's something she said she's enjoying to the fullest.

"It gives me the rush that the jumping did," she said. "I have to have something that's exciting to do and this is certainly exciting."

Mancuso made her first trip from the Lone Star state to Augusta because of her trainer, Jonathan Rogers. She began riding with Rogers in December 2016, and he told her was coming to the Augusta Futurity to show several horses.

So she made the trek east as well.

In the Unlimited Amateur for 5-6-Year-Olds go-round, Mancuso and CR Missnjethro Woody finished third. Then in the finals, the pair rode fourth in the final set of 10 horses.

Mancuso said she couldn't remember the details of her run. She just remembered the good things that happened.

"I was very pleased with it," she said. "I had really great help tonight. And my horse was really awesome."

Go-Round event with 37 contestants results in tie of leaders posting 219

FOR GAVIN CALLAHAN, showing cutting horses is a family deal.

His father, his mother and his sister all compete on the circuit. They all took a break the Sunday before the Augusta Futurity to celebrate Gavin's 13th birthday.

The following day, Callahan competed for the first time as a teenager.

Aboard Johnny Reyngo, Callahan marked 219 to tie for the top score in the $50,000 Amateur Any Age Go-Round with Matthew Coldiron and Aristo Jazz.

Brad Barker and JJs Catless Merada finished third at 218.

The top 10 horses with scores of 215 or better advanced to the finals.

"It's pretty exciting," Callahan said. "You have another time to show. It's not over yet."

Callahan of McConnells, S.C., was one of four family members competing in the Augusta Futurity. His father, Jarrett, mother, Shannon, and his 15-year-old sister, Gracen, also entered several events.

Gavin said he started showing cutting horses when he was 6. The home-schooled student competes at shows throughout the year.

Jarrett Callahan purchased Johnny Reyngo, a 7-year-old gelding in 2015. The horse was one of several Callahan bought from Carol Dewrell.

"He just had a big stop," the elder Callahan said, adding that the horse is mainly his son's now. "He's going to show him. I've turned him over to him."

Gavin competed with Johnny Reyngo for the fourth time at an event during the $50,000 Amateur Any Age go-round. Despite their relative newness together, the pair got along well in the go-round.

"I like how he's patient, how he stops real hard," he said. "He's just a really nice horse."

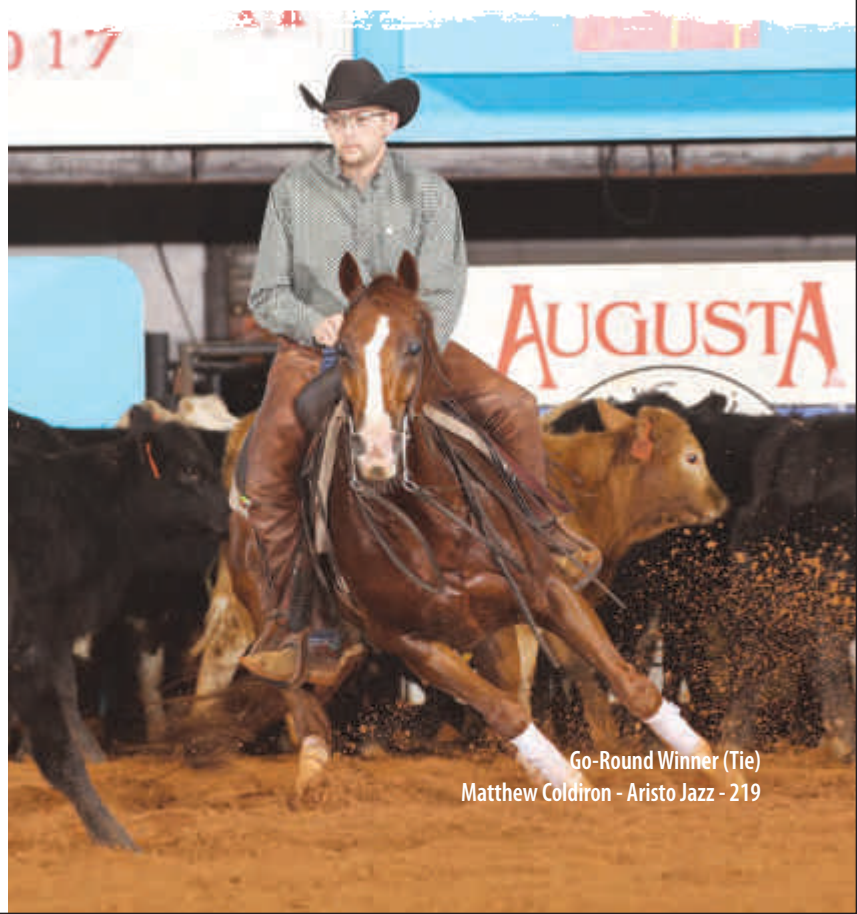

In the go-round, Callahan and his horse ran sixth in the second set of 12 horses. He made a clean cut of his first cow. Then, his help found his second cow, one which allowed him to score points on. With 30 seconds, he cut a final cow to finish off his run.

"I wasn't trying to mark big numbers or anything," he said. "I was just trying to be clean."

"He did a really good job," Jarrett said. "He drove his cattle and handled them well. I'm proud of him."

First Augusta show visit results in title for trucking company owner

BRAD BARKER IN PAST YEARS didn't want to make the 12-hour trek to Augusta because he felt like he didn't have enough horses to compete.

When he and his wife, Allison, started planning the 2017 circuit, they decided to make a stop in Georgia.

Three horses proved to be the charm.

Barker and JJS Catless Merada marked 220 to win the $50,000 Amateur Any Age finals by 3.5 points.

"We finally had enough horses gathered up that we thought we could come down here and try our luck," he said. "It's a long way to come just for one horse."

Barker of Texarkana, Texas, will return home with a shiny new buckle and a check for $1,393 for his first Augusta Futurity championship.

Jason Britt and Dontreynonmyparadesf marked 216.5 to finish second for $1,113, while Morgan Griggs and Pour Summ Sugar Onme placed third at 216 ($974). Vick Etheridge and Mississippi Cat finished fourth (214.5, $765).

"This is my first time bringing it home," Barker said about his first major win. "It really hasn't set in yet. I don't know how to explain it."

The 48-year-old Barker owns a small trucking company and stays on the road most of the year. He said he comes once a month through Augusta.

Barker got into cutting in recent years after getting married to Allison, who competed in the 2017 Augusta Futurity in the Non-Pro class. He bought JJS Catless Merada, an 8-year-old chestnut gelding by Cats Merada out of Madelena, last spring.

"Sometimes, it's just a matter of being at the right place at the right time," he said about buying the gelding. "He's just a really nice horse."

Barker started showing JJS Catless Merada in June and then stopped because of his busy work schedule. He began riding the horse again a few weeks ago in advance of the Augusta Futurity.

The pair finished third in the go-round posting a score of 218. Barker and his horse went first in the finals and took advantage of their draw; setting the standard for the final nine horses.

"Drawing first helped a bunch," Barker said. "I knew I had laid down a good run when I finished up."

2017 AUGUSTA FUTURITY HORSE SALE

Annual sale results in 24 horses selling for more than $140,000

EXCITEMENT WAS HIGH again at the annual Augusta Futurity Horse Sale which resulted in 24 of the 32 consigned horses selling for a total of $140,600; or an average of $7,264.

Troy Stewart managed the sale sponsored by the Atlantic Coast Cutting Horse Association.

Three horses sold for $10,000 or more.

Miss Berrie Smooth, a 6-year-old mare by Hes Playingforkeeps out of Creeks Miss Smoothie, was the star of the show as the top-selling horse bringing in a price of $17,5000.

Jaebars Flash, an 8-year-old sorrel gelding by Smart Little Jaebars out of Chics Madam Chair, sold for $15,000.

And Bob Somebody, a 2003 sorrel gelding by Somebody Smart out of Tweetie Doc, went for $11,000.

$35,000 NON-PRO ANY AGE GO-ROUND

Louisiana rider gets his chance to show due to pregnant wife

With Amanda Standish sitting out the Augusta Futurity due to pregnancy, her husband finally got the call from the bullpen. Rhein Standish, a relative newcomer to cutting, showed for the first time in Augusta. He had some high-powered help as well.

"She finally let me ride her horses," he said, adding his wife planned to be back for the 2018 show. "She told me not to get used to it."

Aboard Countin On Stella, Rhein Standish marked 217.5 to win the $35,000 Non-Pro go-round by 1.5 points. Tyler Grace Green and Smart Widow tied for second at 216 with Greg Mullis and Plain Sweet Cat. Jake Wilmot and Shorty Boonlight came in fourth at 213.5.

The top nine horses with scores of 211 or better advanced to the finals. The Standishes of Baton Rouge, La., welcomed their first child, Eloise, on June 1.

Amanda and Rhein run Boisvert Farm, which features about 75 Arabian horses and 25 quarter horses.

Countin On Stella was purchased by the Standishes during the middle of her five-year-old year. Rhein said her bloodline was part of the reason, especially with the thought of making her a broodmare.

Rhein also said Countin On Stella is a smooth horse inside the pen.

"I really like her," he said. "When she moves, she gets down low. She stops really hard. She has a great way of moving about here."

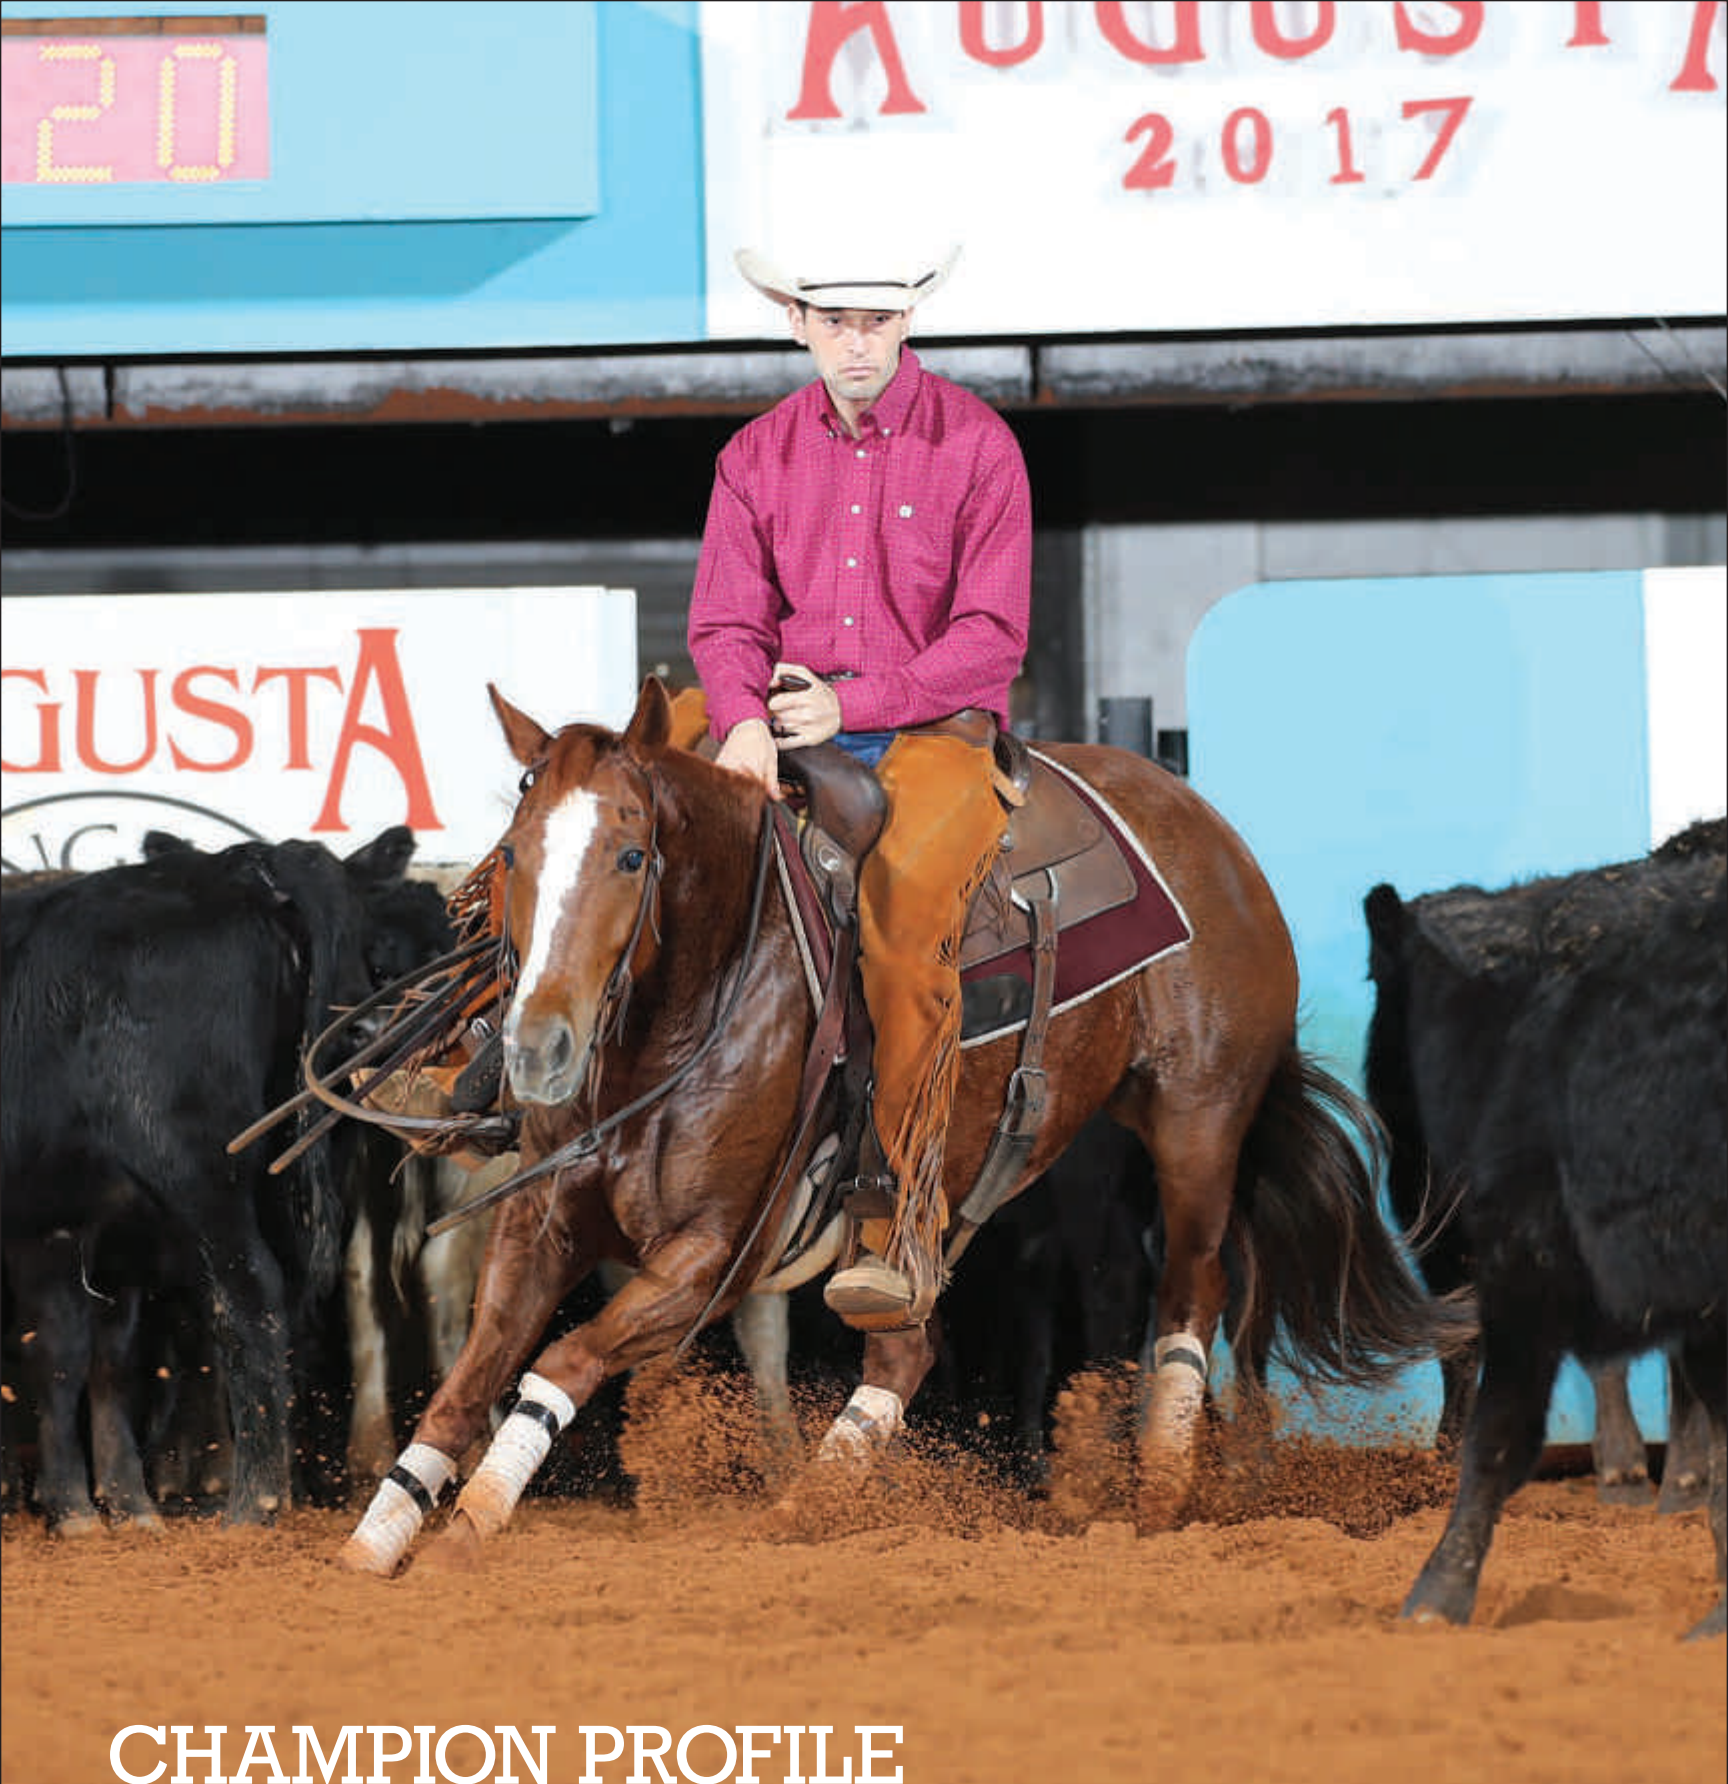

Countin On Stella, now 7, had her first foal in 2017 through embryo transfer. Standish said the plan was to retire her so she could start having more babies in 2018.

"I think she's ready," he said. "She's going to be a great broodmare."

Rhein Standish praises Austin Shepard for his first title win in Augusta

RHEIN STANDISH ONLY STARTED CUTTING in recent years. While he's new to the sport, he has one of the circuit's top trainers living just three hours away.

From his home in Baton Rouge, La., Standish can awake early and drive a little more than three hours to visit Austin Shepard in Summerdale, Ala. Then, he can get in a quick training session and return home around lunchtime.

"He helps me a ton, and he's very patient," Standish said. "I ask a lot of questions and he answers all of them in a very-detailed manner."

Standish's training paid off in the $35,000 Non-Pro finals. Aboard Countin On Stella, Standish marked 214 to win the event by a half-point.

With his first Augusta Futurity victory, Standish took home a check for $2,990.

Tyler Grace Green and Smart Widow placed second at 213.5 for $2,392, while Doug Batchelor and Moonstruck Player finished third (211, $1,944).

"We love Augusta," Standish said. "It's a great little town, and it's a nice show. It's pretty laid back, but it's quite competitive, too."

Countin On Stella, is a 7-year-old mare by Im Countin Checks out of Smooth Stella. Standish and his horse competed seventh in the nine-horse finals.

"I thought the mare had a great run, did really well," he said. "She worked very clean."

In the fall, the Standishes are busy with Arabian horses.

At the U.S. National Arabian and Half-Arabian Championship on this past Oct. 26 in Tulsa, Okla., Rhein won a national championship. He said that's something that motivates him for his other sport, too.

"We hope," he said, "to do that in cutting horses as well."

*'We love Augusta.
It's a great little town, and it's a nice show. It's pretty laid back, but it's

AREA 18 YOUTH SCHOLARSHIP FINALS

Katherine Queen claims Area 18 victory riding multi-personality Clayreycious

CLAYREYCIOUS CAN BE QUITE a different horse in and out of the pen.

The 7-year-old gelding is calm outside of competition. But when Katherine Queen rides her horse through cattle, Clayreycious switches personalities.

"He's wild then," Queen said, adding her horse is different when a cutting competition is over. "Then he's really chill. He's easy to ride, not complicated at all."

Queen and Clayreycious were both laid back after winning the Area 18 Youth Scholarship finals. The pair marked an initial score of 214 later changed to 220 after judges' review.

Queen claimed the $3,000 scholarship for the first time.

Joey Varnadore, the 2016 champion of this event, posted 218 aboard Reyminate for a $2,000 scholarship. Pittman Turner and Hickorys Handy Cat placed third at 217 for $1,500, while Abbie Williams and CD Lighter finished fourth (216, $1,000).

Jessie Hays and Clever Hickory Man finished fifth (213.5, $500).

The 13 contestants in the field wore pink ribbons on their saddles in honor of Mary Kingsbury an NCHA director from South Carolina who lost a lengthy battle with cancer in 2016.

Kingsbury was a champion of Area 18 youth cutting along with fellow South Carolina NCHA director Becky Elliott.

"She was an inspiration to everybody," Elliott said.

A seventh-grader at Grace Christian Academy, Queen has been cutting in this event for three years. She finally found a quality horse in Clayreycious by Halreycious out of Cash N Scooter.

The 17-year-old Varnadore of Evans, Ga., planned to graduate from Augusta Christian in May 2017. He played football his junior year but decided to give up the sport to focus on cutting.

"I decided I'd rather ride horses," he said, "than get hurt playing football."

Show chairman says Champions Club 'essential reason for our survival'

WHEN AUGUSTA FUTURITY show chairman William S. "Billy" Morris III rang his cowbell to usher in another edition of the Champions Club Roundup, he did so with a renewed sense of confidence. After several down years, Augusta Futurity officials sensed the 38th edition of the show would bounce back in a big way in 2017.

And they were right. It did. One week before the Augusta Futurity, Morris said he expected the largest cutting horse show east of the Mississippi River to be a bigger show.

And, in large part, that would be due to the show being the first stop of the popular Mercuria World Series of Cutting competition open to horses of all ages.

The Mercuria event usually brings a star-studded field of competitors vying for $25,000 in added money in the pro and non-pro events.

Morris also touched on several companion events to the futurity with as usual the popular USC Aiken Extra Inning Bull Riding Championship serving as an unofficial kickoff event for the Augusta Futurity.

On the Sunday before the Augusta Futurity, the second annual Georgia-Lina Tuff Truck Parade was held starting at The Hippodrome Events Center in North Augusta and making its way to James Brown Arena.

There was even the inaugural Hay Bales and Cocktails charity dinner and dance during Augusta Futurity Week. Proceeds benefited the Golden Harvest Food Bank.

All of the companion events helped support the Augusta Futurity, which began in 1980. The show has played host to more than 7,700 entrants competing for cash purses totaling more than $9.3 million, Morris said.

In 2016, the show saw almost 400 entries with competitors coming from 23 states and Canada.

"The importance of the Augusta Futurity to our city, state and the Southeast cannot be overstated," Morris said. "The positive economic impact over the last 37 years to both Georgia and South Carolina, and to Augusta, has been quite significant."

Morris credited local hospitality for the show's success and specifically recognized the Champions Club patrons group that financially supports the show.

"The essential reason for our survival through challenging times has been this Champions Club," he said. "Frankly, it is you, the Champions Club members, who have made the difference."

The members of the Champions Club support the Futurity with $1,000 donations. Charter members are A.B. Beverage, Hull Barrett P.C. and Sconyers Barbecue.

WHILE THE VOLUNTEERS and staff members put in long hours during the week of the Augusta Futurity, the five judges sitting in the Baker Tower work hard throughout the show as well.

The judges were there for the NCHA Open cutting events the first two days of the show and worked several companion events including the prestigious Mercuria World Series of Cutting Open and Non-Pro competition.

It was an exhausting routine for the judges who scored an additional 200 runs in this year's Augusta Futurity.

The judges for the 2017 show were: Jamie Beamer of Weatherford, Texas; Ernie Beutenmiller, Jr., of Union, Mo.; Joe Cameron of Moulton, Ala.; Jody Galyean of Marietta, Okla., and Ken Mock of Weatherford, Texas.

Pete Fanning of Granbury, Texas, was the show's judge monitor.

As they do every year, five judges rank rides on a scale between 60 and 80 points, with half-points being allowed. The final score is reached by dropping the highest and lowest scores and taking the total of the remaining three scores. The highest possible score is 240.

A score of 220 or better is considered exceptional. There have been 42 riders at the Augusta show who have reached the 225 mark. No rider reached the 225 level in 2016.

Katherine Queen and Metallic Manziel marked the highest score of the show with 227 in the Classic Non-Pro finals. Queen's score was one of just 14 that the judges marked 220 or better in eight official Augusta Futurity events in 2017.

Sam Shepard and SDP Lil Ichi Maddie posted 225 for the top score in the Mercuria competition. Shepard and his horse marked the score in the Open go-round.

In the four amateur events just two competitors reached the 220 level.

In the Area 18 Youth Scholarship finals, a companion event to the Augusta Futurity, Queen and her horse marked 220 to win the competition by two points over Joey Varnadore.

AUGUSTA STALLION STAKES

Stallion Stakes program pays out whopping $43,700 to owners of 20 horses

ONE OF THE BEHIND-THE-SCENES items at the Augusta Futurity is one of those show's biggest incentives.

The futurity's Subscribed Stallion Auction continued to give cutters another to perform well in the red Georgia clay.

Held in conjunction with the Atlantic Cutting Horse Association, the seventh-year program paid out $43,700 to owners of 20 horses sired by a participating stallion in the Incentive Program.

Horses born in 2013 were eligible to nominated for the program in the 2017 Augusta Futurity.

The purse paid out $6,400 more than it did in 2016, a 15 percent increase.

Of the total purse paid out, $18,954.22 was paid to eight owners in the Futurity Open category, $14,215.66 went to owners of seven horses in the Futurity Non-Pro division and $10,530.12 was paid to three owners in the 4-Year-Old Unlimited Amateur category.

Reyzurbetsonthiscat, ridden by Craig Thompson and owned by Barnwell Ramsey, earned $4,738.55 for the top run in the Futurity Open.

Jarrett Callahan, aboard Calico Spots, was the top winner in the Futurity Non-Pro finals. He and his wife, Shannon, owners of the horse, took home a check for $3,980.38.

Jason Britt rode DMAC Hipster to an incentive check worth $3,159.04 in the 4-Year-Old Unlimited Amateur division.

The Augusta Stallion Stakes Incentive Program began in 2006 to help create and offer additional money to all 4-year-olds entered in the Augusta Futurity and sired by participating stallions.

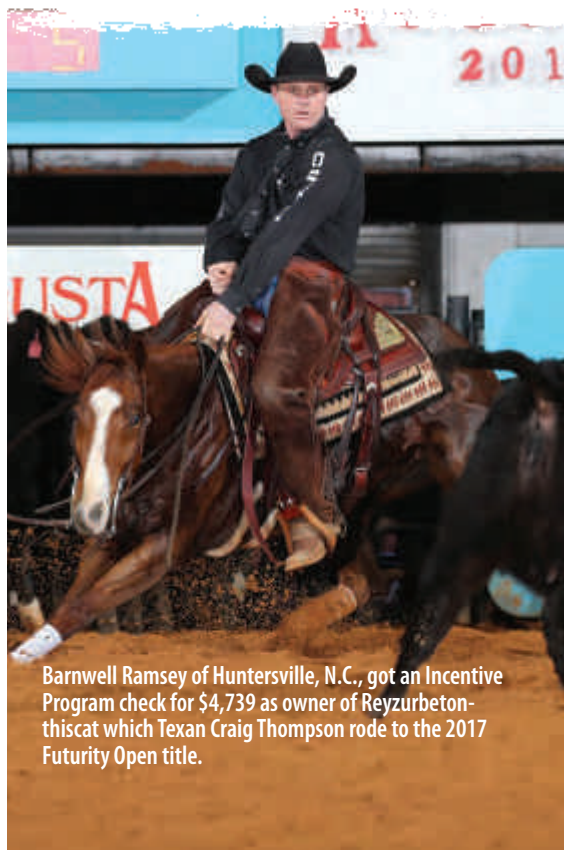

Stallion owners donate a breeding service to their stallions with a breeding to be used in the same year. Money raised from the 2017 Augusta Futurity's Stallion Stakes Auction and Incentive Program will be pro-rated as cash bonuses in the 2022 Incentive Fund.

All 2018 foals sired by participating stallions entered in the Augusta Futurity in their 4-year-old year (2022) will be eligible to compete for this incentive purse.

For more information about the program, call Tom Holt at (817) 235-7507.

Jarrett and Shannon Callahan of McConnells, S.C., as owner of Calico Spots, got an Incentive Program check for $3,980 in addition to the $8,000 for Jarrett winning the Futurity Non-Pro event on their horse.

Barnwell Ramsey of Huntersville, N.C., got an Incentive Program check for $4,739 as owner of Reyzurbetsonthiscat which Texan Craig Thompson rode to the 2017 Futurity Open title.

Jason Britt of Seven Spring, N.C., got a check for $1,400 placing fourth riding DMAC Hipster in the 4-Year-Old Unlimited Amateur finals but a bigger Incentive Program check for $3,159 as owner of the horse.
